

KOKHANOK VILLAGE COUNCIL

PUBLIC NOTICE

March 25, 2020

COVID-19: HIGHLY CONTAGIOUS

Important community measures to follow:

TRAVEL RESTRICTIONS:

- A written approval from the Kokhanok Village Council is needed in order for any person to travel in to Kokhanok. All airlines were notified of this. The only exception is essential service workers.
- If a person is approved to enter the village, they must self-quarantine for a minimum of 14 days. This will include all household members where they are staying.
- Interstate travelers are requested to quarantine at their point of entry in Alaska prior to seeking approval to enter Kokhanok.
- Intervillage travel across the lake is highly discouraged and we ask community members to discontinue travelling to other villages.

COMMUNITY SERVICES:

- The Kokhanok Utilities will sell gasoline and oil only. We will not cash checks or give cash back at this time.
- For gas/oil sales, you must call prior to purchasing. The Kokhanok Utilities office can be reached at 907-282-2342. Payment can be dropped off in the collection box at the office. If using a debit card, be prepared to provide your PIN number at the door.
- Until further notice, power cards will no longer operate on a prepaid basis. An invoice will be sent every month.
- When picking up mail, we ask that only one person at a time enter the post office.
- Kokhanok Village Council is no longer allowing use of fax or copy machines.
- Please limit traffic at the store to one person at a time.
- Please call ahead if you'd like to be seen at the Kokhanok Clinic. They can be contacted at 907-282-2203.

SOCIAL DISTANCING:

- We are encouraging people to stay at home. Visitation between households is strongly discouraged. When outside, you should be no closer than 6 feet from another person.

We are looking out for the health, safety, and well-being of our community.

Thank you for your understanding and your cooperation.

For questions, please call the KVC office at 907-282-2202 or the Village Administrator at 907-282-4232.
