Tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Diversion Option

The purpose of Diversion is to reduce welfare dependence by providing immediate, targeted assistance to job-ready applicants. This is done by making an assistance payment(s) to meet specific needs, instead of ongoing TANF benefits. The eligibility worker is responsible for determining if a TANF applicant meets the criteria for Diversion.

Diversion is an option available only to adult applicants for TANF. TANF participants are not eligible for Diversion.

Adults who choose to receive a Diversion payment are not considered TANF participants. Therefore, a Diversion payment does not count as a month of TANF when calculating the 60-month time limit.

To qualify you must meet all of the following:

Job ready: For the purposes of Diversion, job-ready means currently working or having prospects for employment within 30 days. A prospect for employment means the adult has a bona fide job offer or has marketable skills and/or work experience and can reasonably expect to find a job within 30 days.

Short-term needs: Short-term needs are necessities or financial obligations which prevent the adult from accepting or keeping a job. Short-term needs include but are not limited to:

- Shelter;
- Child care;
- Vehicle costs and transportation expense (such as repairs and insurance, or towards purchase of a vehicle);
- Driver’s or occupations licenses;
- Clothing and tools needed to perform a job; and
- Relocation to accept employment.

Lack of resources: The family does not have the personal resources to meet their identified needs. The only personal resources considered in the Diversion determination are countable cash on hand and other liquid resources that can be readily used to meet the short-term needs.

To qualify for Diversion, a family must submit:

- A completed 477 application (pages 1-8, if applicable)
- A paystub or job offer letter of an adult who is working or is ready to work;
- Provide proof of specific short-term needs which must be met to help the adult secure or maintain employment;
- Signed acknowledgement of no other means available, apart from a Diversion payment, to meet the identified needs;
- Appear to meet these general factors of Temporary Assistance eligibility:
 - U.S. Citizenship or Eligible Alien status;
 - Residency in Alaska;
 - Age;
 - Living in Home of a Caretaker Relative;
 - Social Security Enumeration;
 - Financial Need – Resources; and
 - Financial Need – Income;

CHILD SUPPORT COOPERATION AND ASSIGNMENT OF SUPPORT

You are required by law to help get child support for a child receiving Temporary Assistance (ATAP/TANF) payments or medical support for a child receiving medical assistance (Medicaid). This means you must help locate a non-custodial parent or establish paternity for a child with no legal father. You must sign over to the State agency any child/spousal support or medical support owed to you for any month you receive assistance. If the non-custodial parent pays support payments to you while you are receiving Temporary Assistance, you must turn the payments over to Child Support Services Division (CSSD). You must do this even if no support order in effect.

If CSSD sends a payment to you in error, they will contact you for repayment of that money. If you want to repay gradually out of future child support payments, instead of immediately in a lump sum, check this box.

SUPPLYING INFORMATION TO CSSD - CONFIDENTIALITY AND SAFETY

If you believe that cooperating with CSSD to get child or medical support will bring harm to you or your children and you can provide support for your belief, you may claim good cause for not cooperating. You may be asked by a Public Assistance caseworker to provide documentation to support your good cause claim. It is up to the caseworker to decide if you have good cause for not cooperating. CSSD will continue to pursue child or medical support against the non-custodial parent, even if you DO NOT cooperate, unless the Division of Public Assistance approves good cause. Please check one of the boxes and sign below.

- I agree to cooperate with CSSD.
- I agree to cooperate with CSSD but I want my address kept confidential.
- I believe I have good cause to not cooperate with CSSD.
